

CONFLICT IN SOUTH ASIA: CAUSES AND CONSEQUENCES

ISSN 0976-1861

May 2019

Vol. X, No.1

CONTENTS

Guest Editorial

Jose Palely and George Thadathil v

From a Realist Security Paradigm towards a Neoliberal Approach: Armed Conflict in Nagaland and Prospects for Pragmatic Resolution 1

Dominic K. Khanyo

Bushmeat and the North-East Way: A Conflict between Wildlife and Humans 15

Konsam Jenny

Addressing Child Trafficking in South Asia 22

Romana Lepcha

Education of Children in Times of Conflict: A Study of Atoizu in Nagaland 33

Tiatula Ozukum

A Nation through Violence to Healing in Malsawmi Jacob's Zorami: A Redemption Song 43

Luhish Lushai

State Initiatives and the Role of Media in Mitigating Human Trafficking: A Case Study of Tea Plantation Workers of Sonitpur District in Assam 51

Saket Kumar Bhardwaj and Uttam Pegu

Sustainable Development Goals in Golaghat District and Adjoining Villages of Assam: Implementation and Challenges 64

Salomy George and Leander Toppo

Refugee Crisis in India: An Inquest on the Rohingya Debacle	83
Subhajit Paul & Uttam Kr Pegu
'Thought Bank' for Peace through Dialogue and Co-Belonging	91
Thomas Menampampil
Book Reviews
David Arnold, Toxic Histories: Poison and Pollution in Modern India	111
by Bikash Sarma
Vinay Lal (ed), India and Civilizational Futures: Backwaters Collective's Metaphysics and Politics II	115
by George Thadathil
TK Oommen, Trials, Tribulations and Triumphs: Life and Times of a Sociologist	127
by Thomas Mathew and George Thadathil
Our Contributors	135
Notes to Contributors

Acknowledgement

Salesian College Publication is very thankful to Don Bosco College, Golaghat, Assam for their collaboration with Salesian College Sonada in the preparation of this present issue.